

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

U. S. GOVERNOR—SIMON BOLIVAR BUCKNER, of Hart County.
 LIKUTANT GOVERNOR—JAMES W. BRYAN, of Mercer county.
 ATTORNEY GENERAL—P. W. HARDIN, of Mercer county.
 AUDITOR—FAYETTE HEWITT, of Hart County.
 TREASURER—JAMES W. TATE, of Woodford county.
 SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—JOSEPH DESHA PICKETT, of Fayette county.
 REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE—THOMAS H. CORRETT, of Mcracken county.
 LEGISLATURE—DR. J. D. PETTUS, of Lincoln county.

BILL BRADLEY has been cavorting over the State palming his false figures and statements on the public till he had grown so bold that he imagined no statement that he could make, however reckless, would be disputed. He tried the latter on Governor McCrory at Richmond, Monday, by charging that he was on Manson's staff at the Battle of Richmond. The governor very promptly denied the charge and stated in a very emphatic manner that any man who said he was, lied. This was a stunner to Bradley and in the excitement which ensued, young George Bradley, who has been going the rounds with his father, apparently as a body guard, to do his fighting if any became necessary, instead of rallying to the front and resending the insult, quietly fell over and fainted and had to be taken to the fresh air to be revived. Bradley went out too, but returned shortly and finished his speech in a hurry, saying that he did not make the charge himself or he would not take the lie of any man. The valiant Colonel ought to have brought that $12 pistol into the game. What is the use of having such a thing on one's person if it is not for such emergencies as this? And, by the way, this reminds us that the Colonel will shoot if crowded, for we are told that upon one occasion he fired into the capacious pouch of Hon. Bully Mason, who was bearing him over the head with a stick, and then took to his heels with the speed of a quarter horse. As old man Mason fell over and his friends gathered around him, thinking he was done for, he surprised them with the remark, which he made in deepest disgust, "Shot by a d—n Abolitionist, by G—d." He did not seem to care at all for the wound itself, but that it was inflicted by a d—n abolitionist gave him the keenest pain. All of which goes to prove that Bradley will shoot if crowded, and we advise those who think he won't, not to get fooled like the honorable ex-representative of Garrard.

JUDGE FOX claimed that the race for governor was between him and Buckner, with Bradley far in the rear. The Judge is either woefully mistaken or is intent on deception. He has about as much show in the race as a short tail bull in fly time. The effect of his candidacy, whether so intended or not, will be in the interest of Bradley, who would himself be hardly in the race, but for the fact that numerous misguided persons who have heretofore acted with the democracy will go off on a single idea that has no place whatever in politics. A vote for Fox is a vote thrown away and we urge upon those who call themselves democrats to stick to the old ship, which has carried them safely so far, and not desert it for side issues that can better be attended to inside that without the party.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND does not seem much frightened by the Grand Army's ravings, at least he pays about as little attention to their demands as if they did not think themselves the "Great I am." The other day the Veteran's Rights Union called on him to have a certain ex-soldier reinstated who had been discharged by the superintendent at the California mint, but the president told them respectfully and firmly that he supposed the superintendent knew what he was about and would not have had the man discharged without sufficient cause. You can't scare your uncle Grover with a cent.

The republicans claim that Bradley was badly treated at Richmond. It doesn't look so from this distance. When a man tells an untruth he ought not to think hard if he is told of it. There were no grounds for Bradley's statement concerning McCrory and the latter would not have been the man we know him to be, to sit calmly and not characterize it in strongest terms.

A DISPATCH says that General Lucius Fairchild, Commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., states positively that he is out of politics and that he will not be a candidate for President. Vice President or any other office. The old brute knows it is no use. His blasphemous, palsy speech ought to damn him here and through all eternity.

THE Louisville Commercial, which is anti-Buckner, figures that he will be elected by a plurality of 32,000. This is the lowest estimate we have seen. From 40,000 to 50,000 seems to be the conceded vote under which the hero of Danleison will bury the warrior from Garrard.

A CRANK was arrested this week in Washington, who started out with the avowed intention of killing President Cleveland. The fraud and frenzy party, under the lead of Halstead, Foraker and Fairchild, are responsible for such creatures.

THE left leg of a farmer in Montgomery county has turned to stone, that is if Mulnaton is to be depended upon.

THE Hart County News explodes the charge made by Fox and other prohibition speakers that Gen. Buckner hauled his workmen to the polls and made them vote against local option, by publishing the affidavits of the men themselves which say he did not even attempt to influence them in the matter and when asked by one of them about the matter he simply said it was a moral question upon which each man must vote as his conscience dictated. So fall another campaign lie.

JAMES FOX made even a more reckless and unguarded arraignment of the democratic management of affairs in Kentucky than Bradley. None of his charges are borne out by the record or the facts and while he pretends to be as much opposed to the republican party, his candidacy is alone in its interest. Democrats who are worthy of the name will hesitate before casting a vote that will be equal to giving it to Bradley.

ALTHOUGH Mr. Bradley charges that the State is running down at the heel and capitalists are afraid to come here because of democratic mismanagement, the fact remains that since the first of January there have been invested in business enterprises in the State $21,710,000 against $17,220,700 last year. Bradley ought to let up on a figure; he gets himself in a tangle every time he attempts to use them.

THE prohibition nominee for Senate in the 17th district, D. T. Chestnut, was afraid the boys would sing the hallelujahs and has decided not to stand for election. Mr. Thornton, of Kenner, is spoken of for the position and it is said he could do up St. Paul, the republican candidate, in style.

THE glorious 4 seems to have been pretty generally celebrated, but with less loss of life and other casualties than usually attend the blow out. We read of but few persons who climbed the golden stair by the accident route on that day.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS

 —Frankfort by a vote of 1,600 decided to subscribe $150,000 to the Paris, Frankfort & Georgetown railroad.
 —During the hot spell people are dying at the rate of 200 a day in New York and considerable alarm is felt.

 —Amos Neal, a Kentucky farmer, 14 miles from Covington, was killed, by lightning while digging in his potato patch.
 —From January 1 to July 1 one hundred tornadoes occurred in the United States, but not one of them in Kentucky.
 —Duncan F. Kenner, commissioner of the Confederate States in Europe during the war, died in New Orleans this week.
 —Aeronaut Clarence fell from his balloon at Orlean, New York, and was killed. Another balloonist landed in the sea and came near being drowned.
 —Henry Colston shot and perhaps fatally wounded his uncle, Joel Wootman, in Scott county. The trouble grew out of a stock trespass.
 —In some parts of New York city the price of soda water has not only dropped to two cents a glass, but the glass is twice the ordinary size.
 —The prohibition law is now in force at Hopkinsville and a local paper says that whisky is shipped to that place in barrels labeled "bacon."
 —James D. Reese, of Winchester, having been disappointed in love, jumped from a third story window of his father's hotel and was instantly killed.
 —Judge Coleman, of Muhlenberg county, has shipped to keep from levying the railroad tax that the United States Court has ordered to be collected.
 —A 4th of July rocket set fire to the Weber Brewing Company's malt house, Cincinnati, and the loss is estimated at $100,000. Two lives were lost.

 —All of the 3 per cent loan of $302,250,000 has been redeemed but a little over eight millions and as all had been called to mature July 1, interest on that has ceased.
 —A New York boy put a lighted cigarette into a pocket containing stolen dynamite cartridges, so that his mother would not see him smoke and he was blown to atoms.
 —A son of August Coldewey and another of Claude Summers, of Louisville, took refuge in a hollow tree during a thunder storm, while out fishing, and were killed by lightning.
 —In the last nine months about 15,000,000 pounds of tobacco—about 3 per cent. of the entire crop—have been destroyed in the United States. There is evidently a method in this reduction of the surplus.
 —There is a split among the Ohio republicans. Foraker favors the nomination of Blaine, hoping that he may himself be put up for the vice-presidency and Sherman's friends are greatly disgruntled.

—A brakeman on the Greensburg Branch, E. W. Haggen, was shot by a negro armed John Buckner, whom he attempted to prevent breaking the car door. The scamp made his escape, but was subsequently captured.

—Will May, of Litchfield, was called from bed by some one pretending to want a quart of whisky, and was assassinated in front of his store by James Lynch, whom he cowhided sometime ago in a difficulty about a woman.

—The summit of Mount Hood, the tallest snow covered peak in Oregon, 12,720 feet high, was illuminated on the 4th with 100 pounds of red fire. The light was visible 75 miles away. A party of 7 men performed the feat.

—As the result of a small race war in Morehouse Parish, La., two white men and twelve negroes have been killed and three white men wounded. The affair grew out of improper relations between a negro and a low white woman.

—Thomas N. Bateman, a private in the Second United States cavalry, shot and killed First Sergeant Samuel Sopher, of the same troop, in the barracks at San Francisco Tuesday morning. Bateman was from Flemingsburg, Ky.

—The town of Clarendon, Pa., was burned Tuesday, only one house being left standing. Over 11,000 homeless people are camped on the hills near by. The town was set on fire by a saloon keeper because a judge had refused to reverse a local option order.

—Secretary Edicott has issued an order against any information being furnished to the press from the records of the war department until it has first been submitted to him and its publication approved by him. The old incompetent believes in all the red tape possible.

—Ernest Fawcett, cashier of the Bank of Adairville, Logan county, is the latest bank official to go wrong and run away. His shortage is expected to reach perhaps $10,000 and is believed to have been brought about by habits of dissipation into which he fell about 18 months ago.

—Bowling G. Darn, of Logan county, 55 years of age, was out with the boys the other day practicing rifle shooting. There were 7 in the party, the target was placed 75 feet off, and uncle Bowling came within half an inch of driving the centre. This was the best shot made.

—The democratic convention of Carter and Elliott counties resolved "in favor of the next legislature submitting to the people of Kentucky a law prohibiting the sale, as a beverage, spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, to be ratified or rejected by the qualified voters of the State." This is impossible under the present constitution.

—The democrats now have almost entire control of the Federal offices. Out of 2,359 Presidential postoffices, 2,600 are held by democrats. Out of 52,609 postmasters of the fourth class, 45,000 have been changed, the remainder being too small and inconsequential to be desired. Out of a possible 111 collectors of customs the democrats have 100, and of 53 collectors of internal revenue 54.

Tuesday and Friday nights are public nights and everybody invited on those nights. There will be a dozen couples out from Crab Orchard Springs to-night.

—Towards the close of the present month I will give a grand banquet and "select" picnic and ball and will set the finest dinner in the hall room ever given by any watering place in Kentucky. From this date no one will be allowed to bring dinners here. Everybody is welcome to come and see the place, but those who come to spend the day must patronize the hotel. A large number of guests are to arrive within the next ten days from all over the State and from the South.

—Our three days' picnic was a success in every particular, notwithstanding the cloudy rainy weather, we had a crowd of from 500 to 700 persons each day.

—The membership of the colored Campbell Presbyterian church is not a large one but a very earnest one. Elder Benjamin Ruess conducted the services Wednesday night when his congregation consisted of Benben Owsley.

—John Henry Briscoe, half witted negro, stocked the modest inhabitants of 24 street several days ago by appearing there in a state of complete nudity. When arrested he gave as an excuse that he was infected with vermin and not being able to get rid of them in any other way, he went down to Clark's R. and took off his clothes, threw them in, took a bath and then came back up town. Some of John Henry's colored friends gave him a shirt and a pair of pants upon the condition that he keep them free from insects.

In our own individual case we find that we can do our whole duty by our political party and at the same time fight the liquor traffic without clashing our political and our moral principles. The one is the work of patriotism and the other the work of morality. And both work harmoniously together. As for the political prohibition party, we never did take any stock in it. It is nothing and amounts to nothing. As well take up any other social issue and galvanize it into a political issue. Had any other man than Fort Fox been nominated for the governorship by his so called party he would be fighting it to day. It is a feeder to his vanity, and hence he is a political prohibitionist. He himself truly defines his position when he declares: "I am not a temperance man, but a political prohibitionist." And that clearly defines the difference between him and myself. We are a temperance man, but not a political prohibitionist. That position we have occupied for 20 years and it is a position we expect to occupy the remainder of our life. —[Grayson Gazette.

The prohibition party has never done anything as a party in Kentucky. Over one half of the counties have prohibitory laws, but this work has been done by keeping the question out of politics and letting the enemies of liquor in all parties and of all races pull together for one common end—the obliteration of the liquor traffic. The great parties of the nation are founded on principles, some of them as old as the government itself and the man who in his ardor as an advocate of prohibition is ready to sacrifice his professed principles and party affiliations and throw his vote away, can only be characterized as a crank or fanatic. —[South Kentuckian.

—There are said to be over 200,000 Americans in London.

AT last total prohibition prevails in Lincoln county, the only remaining saloon license expiring at midnight on the 15th. The effect of the law so far has been very gratifying. Let every citizen see to it that the law is fully enforced. The political prohibitionists will go on doing all the damage to the cause they can.

THE name of the firm which is selling the Florence Washing Machine here is Morgan, McAllister & Rose. Mr. Walsh, who was mentioned in the place of Mr. N. S. THE Lincoln County Teachers' Institute, to be conducted by Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Centre College, will convene here next Wednesday, 15th, and continue to run three days. It would be the proper thing for our citizens to provide homes for these hard worked and badly paid laborers in the cause of education and make their stay among us as pleasant as possible.

NEXT Thursday, 15th, is the day set apart for the grand democratic rally and barbecue for this campaign district. Preparations will be made to feed 10,000 people and everybody is invited without money and without price to eat of the good things and imbibe the genuine democratic doctrine that will be preached there on that day. Let all waverers make it a point to be there.

THE trustees of the Stanford Seminary met Tuesday, and by a vote of four to three elected Prof. S. J. Pallam principal of the school over Prof. Abner Rogers, who has held it so long and given so much satisfaction. Prof. Pallam is a graduate of Centre College and during his year as teacher since, proved himself well qualified for the difficult duties of the school room. The friends of Prof. Rogers will regret that he will no longer be one of us, but will wish him well wherever his lot may be cast.

THOSE democrats who are contemplating voting for Fox should think twice before deserting the good old party, which has withstood all efforts to replace it and which is bound by the very nature of affairs to continue to be dominant in this country. There can be nothing whatever gained by voting for a prohibition candidate for governor. He stands no earthly chance of election and if democrats persist in throwing their votes away, the result in this county will be a victory for the republican candidate, Bradley. As a temperance man as good as the best of them, we urge the democrats of Lincoln to stand by their colors and not allow our 400 or 500 majority to be thrown away. The republicans are not going to desert Bradley. Let democrats be equally true to party and cast their votes for Simon Bolivar Buckner.

THE Lincoln County Stock Fair is an assured fact and we are asked to call a meeting of those interested at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, Saturday, at the Court House, when the details will be arranged and the premium list prepared. That no squabble could arise afterwards over the matter, the stock was subscribed on the understanding that S. H. Binghamman was to be president; George Miller Givens vice-president; and Forester Reid, Rube Harris, Porter Sandridge, John G. Lynn, Sam M. Owens, I. Mack Bruce, Thomas Robinson, W. L. McCarty, J. W. James and J. G. Weatherford, directors. The exhibition will be on the grounds of J. E. Farris, where a very good half-mile track is already in order and plenty of shade trees are found. It is not to be a Stanford fair, but one in which the whole county is expected to participate and aid in making a success. The date will probably be fixed for the last week in this month, 27-29. It will thus follow the Kirksville fair and precede the Danville fair, enabling those from a distance who wish to enter stock to take in the circuit while they are at it. The notice is a little short, but nearly all who would content anyway will be ready and prepared to help in establishing on a sure basis the Lincoln County Stock Fair Association. It will of course be a rope fair this time, but the intention is to prepare everything in permanent order for next year.

FOUND.—Between this place and Rowland, a pair of toe-shippers, No. 1. The owner can get them by paying for this notice.

IN LUCK.—Mr. J. M. Harris, formerly of this county, but now of Sedan, Ind., is here with friends. Since his last visit he has obtained a pension of $39 a month and an arrearage of $5,370. He lost a leg as the result of his army service.

THE calisthenic performance by the Lancaster club last night promised to be well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. In order to let the craft attend we went to press in advance of its opening and defer comment till next issue.

THE seminary will open about Sept. 1st, Prof. S. J. Pallam, who was here yesterday, tells us. The tuition has been reduced, a thing that the patrons are sure not to kick about. The new professor bears some splendid testimonials to his ability and fitness and we are sure will give satisfaction.

THE Stanford horse ball club has honored the INTERIOR JOURNAL by naming itself for us. Albert Severance is Captain and we believe we have that it can wax any club of its age in Kentucky. It played the Lancaster yesterday and of course did them up, though it had not been decided at this writing.

THOSE who wish to avail themselves of the $12 excursion to Old Point next Monday can do so by either the 5 or the 7 o'clock train from Rowland that morning. Tickets good for two weeks. The excursionists will be splendidly equipped for the comfort of excursionists and will do everything to make the trip pleasant. Take our advice and go next Monday.

THE McElroy Glenners, with the able supervision of Messrs. George H. Bruce and Harvey J. McElbert, gave one of the best as well as one of the cheapest suppers that we have attended. The food and cake were splendid and the tables were arranged both tastefully and comfortably. The Glenners acted as waiters and did their work very nicely. The proceeds amounted to about $20.

IT was a mistake about the Lincoln Land Company deciding to abandon this field and it grew out of the fact that it expected to cease operations for a month or two to get its business out of the tangle it got into through the management of Mr. Ottenheimer. The company has landed in losses here to the amount of over $10,000 and could not leave were it so inclined. W. H. Miller is now attending to its legal business.

MAKING BRUCE was not with the Sheriff's posse that went after Fish. He was summoned and never having heard of his shirking a duty, however unpleasant, we supposed he went. A reasonable cause prevented him this time, but he says it is about the first one he ever missed. Deputy Sheriff Olin Newland happened not to be with the party at the time of the shooting, having been detailed to take the gun to the depot.

HISTORY.—Messrs. Loveland & McLaren are here delivering Beatty & Perkins' History of Kentucky to subscribers in this county. We have not had time to fully examine the copy left at this office, but a cursory glance at the appendix shows many more important men in this vicinity than we had an idea of. The book is handsomely gotten up and subscribers pay $12.50 for it, which includes the "Sketch." There are 23 in Lincoln county.

RAINS have fallen in localities in this vicinity, but so far this immediate section has been denied the long hoped for wetting. It is getting to be a serious matter. Gardens have already burned up and corn is injuring badly. The above was written when the blizzards seemed determined to set the earth afire. Yesterday, however, a grateful shower came, followed by others, and the prospect now is that the protracted drought is about to come to an end.

THE report was current here that Hiram R. Hiatt had come from his home in the West and was breathing out threatening and slaughter against the posse that shot his brother Jim. It grew no doubt out of the fact that Mr. Hiatt passed through town Wednesday with a double barreled shot gun. To those with whom he conversed here he made no threats whatever. He had not heard the full particulars of the shooting and was naturally indignant and said he intended to invoke the aid of the law in punishing those who did the shooting, if it was inexcusable. Mr. Hiatt is a man of too much sense as well as of too cool a temperament to make idle threats and attempt to bulldoze a lot of men acting under the law and doing nothing more than it was their duty to do. They all regret the necessity of shooting, but they could not do otherwise, besides we learn that young Hiatt blames himself more than anybody else for his misfortune.

—At Zug, in Switzerland, a terrible calamity occurred and half the new quays on the lake shore sank; 40 houses, including an inn full of guests, were overwhelmed and over a hundred of the sleeping inmates drowned.

MARRIAGES.

—Dr. E. D. Standiford, of Louisville, was married yesterday to Mrs. Loretta Scott, a wealthy young lady of Paducah. We wish him much joy and hope that his matrimonial venture will bring as good fortune to him politically as it did to President Cleveland and Gen. Buckner.

RELIGIOUS.

—Rev. Percy G. Eason is holding a meeting at Rowland and large congregations attend. He will preach to-night and to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.

—Mr. James F. Huber, well known as a Y. M. C. A. Secretary, State Visitor, State Sunday school Secretary, and leader in good works generally, will leave for his new home in Texas, near Colorado City, July 20.—[C. J.]

—"Chalk sermon" for all the children of the town at the Baptist church on next Sunday, at 3 o'clock. Special missionary service for all Christian workers at 11. By request the pastor will preach a special sermon on "Grace," Ephesians 2:8, at 8 o'clock.

LAND, STOCK AND UNDO.

—The wheat market in Chicago is weak at 71 for August.

—Two thoroughbred pigs sold for $150 in Madison this week.

—Bourbon farmers say they will hold their wheat for 70 cents.

—A yield of 34 bushels of wheat is predicted all through Southern Kansas.

—It is estimated that not over 40 per cent of a tobacco crop has been planted in Kentucky.

—Phillips & Co. bought three fine yearling mares in Bourbon at $115.—[Lebanon Standard.]

—Attention is called to the advertisement of the great horse fair to be given at Richmond. The management proposes to eclipse its former excellent exhibitions.

—Wittier.—We are prepared to buy the new crop at the highest market price, delivered at Stanford, Rowland or any station in Lincoln county. J. B. Green will buy for us at Hustonville. Western & Menefee.

—E. Forman & Son bought 2,000 bushels of wheat at 6 cents. 150 cattle and Monday at 2 to 3 cents and 17 hogs at 10 cents from $1 to $200. Col. Tribble's crop of wheat will average 50 bushels to the acre and is very fine.—[Richmond Times.]

—Catalogue of the Mercer County Fair Association shows a long and liberal list of premiums. It will be held at Harrodsburg, beginning August 9th and lasting 4 days. The printing, which was done by the Democrat, is the best of the kind we have seen.

—A letter from a correspondent at Whiting, Kansas, says: "Kentucky stock does well here. We have sold 45 head of short-horn in the last 15 months from Grundy's McElroy's, Ray's, McCord's and Rogers' herds, at from $10 to $200 per head. Horses from Kentucky are also doing well."—[Farmers Home Journal.]
